Scandec Systemer New Distributor for Analog Way in Norway

Analog Way, world leading designer and manufacturer of innovative image processing systems, is pleased to announce a new distribution agreement in Norway with Scandec Systemer AS.

Scandec Systemer AS, located in Kolbotn, is one of the leading distributors with an extensive dealer network in Norway.

“I’m truly delighted to announce this agreement,” says Petteri Partinen, Area Sales Manager of Analog Way in Nordics. “Scandec has a strong knowledge of the industry, they’re well established in Norway and know how to sell and to support demanding AV systems. I’m sure this partnership will help us expand our footprint in Norway,” Partinen adds.

“Analog Way will be great addition to our AV product portfolio,” says Magne Riise from Scandec.
“I’ve been working with Analog Way products in the past and I’m thrilled to be able to sell them again. In their wide range of equipement, you can find solutions for all types of projects, from installation in a museum to the largest rental gigs. It fits perfectly into our existing product portfolio”.
